

THE RED DEVIL

OUR GOAL

LOWELL HIGH SCHOOL
LOWELL, OREGON

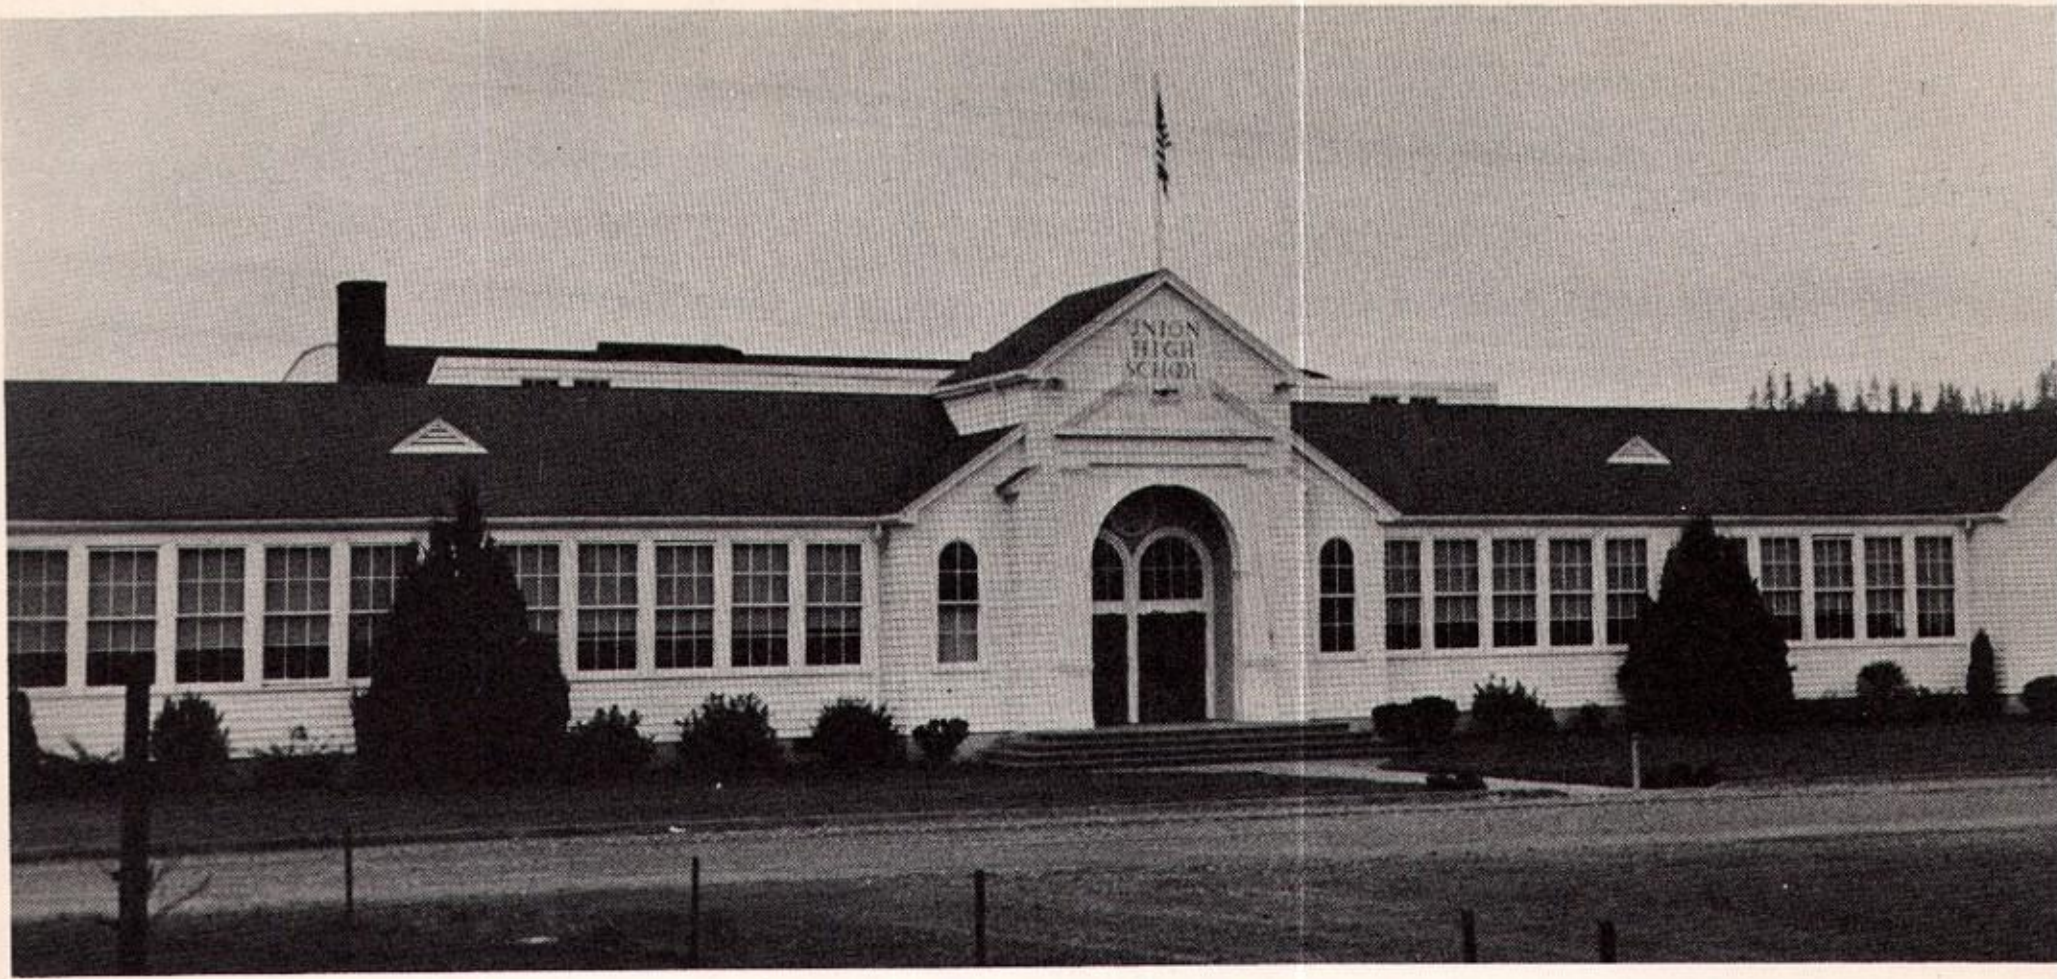

High school, for some of us the beginning of a whole new life and for others the end of four years of hard work toward our goal, graduation. We can compare our work through our four years to a football team inside the ten-yard line with first down, goal to go.

Our Freshman year is our first down. It is important for us to get off to a good start because the closer we get to the goal the harder the going is. So we must do well at this time.

Our next two years are our next two downs. Some of us have left the scene and others have joined us and we are now preparing for our last big push to our goal.

On fourth down, our Senior year, we attain our goal, graduation. It is the culmination of four long years. Some of us will be going on to more school and others will settle down to life, in search of more goals to attain.

"FOR PETE'S SAKE"

"For Pete's Sakes," a comedy farce, was presented by the Junior class on November 24, 1953.

The action began when Miss Sarah Pepperdine decided to take a trip to the Holy Land. After she left to catch the boat, her nephew, Peter Pepperdine, and his friend, Bill Bradshaw, whom Miss Pepperdine dislikes very much, decided to rent her house.

Upon renting the house to the Clarkstons, a social climber and her two daughters, Miss Pepperdine suddenly became afraid of the water and called Peter and told him that she was returning home very soon. In order to get the Clarkstons out of the house he told Jasmine, the darky cook, to tell them that the house was haunted. But in order to make Jasmine believe this the two boys had to just about scare her to death.

The climax came when Miss Pepperdine returned and found the Clarkstons still occupying her home.

SENIOR PLAY

Hercules Nelson and his bosom pal, Wilbur Maxwell, come to spend the week end with Hercules' aunt and uncle. Hercules knows his uncle has taken a new job, but he doesn't know until too late that his uncle is a mortician. The boys are terrified, and decide to head for home, when another guest appears. The guest is Jason Quigley, who "ran out of gas," and the funeral is to be held Monday. Wilbur spots Celeste, Hercules' cousin, and decides to stay. Mr. Quigley turns out to be quite alive. He thinks someone tried to do away with him, so a plan is evolved: He'd make his family think he was dead, then show up at his own funeral and trap the guilty party. Herc's for leaving, until he sees Nina, the deceased's granddaughter, and he decides to stay. No doubt Mr. Quigley's plan was good, but when Wilbur and Hercules set out to solve the case, matters go from worse to terrible. Hercules tips off Nina that her grandpop's alive and Uncle Bob, being implicated, is mistakenly carted off to the klink. The boys finally come face to face with the culprit, after first getting everyone out of the house who could help them, and finally escape with their necks, but not before one of the wildest finishes ever.

Changing from the single wing to the T formation the Red Devils were slow in getting started. Losing their opener to Monroe by a score of 32 to 7, Mr. Bob Butler and Mr. John Hepner offered their assistance to Mr. James Carmichael and Mr. Lyle Carter, and before long the team began to shape, winning their next contest over Siletz, who later were champions of their district. But still playing ragged ball the coach went back to work on the backfield starts and the linemen's blocking. The next time the Red Devils got a chance to show their ability was a game with Pleasant Hill, which ended in a 13-13 deadlock, with P. H. scoring their last touchdown off Lowell's Freshmen. From Pleasant Hill the team moved to Springfield for a scrimmage with the Springfield J. V.'s, losing by one touchdown.

Then the work started. The Red Devils were faced with some very fine competition, the first being Sutherlin, an "A" school, who won by a score of 25-0. In a sea of mud and rain Oakland came next to beat the Devils by a score of 12-6, although the Red Devils scored two touchdowns that were called back due to penalties. The next disappointment came when the Red Devils played one of the standout teams of the state, Bandon. The Devils played fine ball this game but lost to this superior club by a score of 33-7.

Getting ready for the biggest game of the year the Red Devils moved to Cottage Grove to brush up on their offense against Cottage Grove J. V. Lowell came out on top by a score of 40-26. All fired up for the game that meant the district championship, the Red Devils moved to Junction City to meet Monroe, who were highly favored over the underdog Red Devils. The game ended with Monroe scoring only one touchdown. For the first time this season this fine offensive club was held to one score, the final score being, Monroe, 7 — Lowell, 0.

BASKETBALL

Lowell High School's Red Devils were superb in this year's league and tournament play, winning 22 games while losing only 4. Coach Lyle Carter's ranging Red Devils, showing superior defense, tied Coburg in the B-League race for a co-championship trophy with 11 wins and 3 losses.

Siletz, Halsey, Monroe and our own Red Devils were the contestants in the annual Christmas Holiday tournament, with the Devils obtaining first place; Halsey, second; Monroe taking third; and Siletz bringing up fourth.

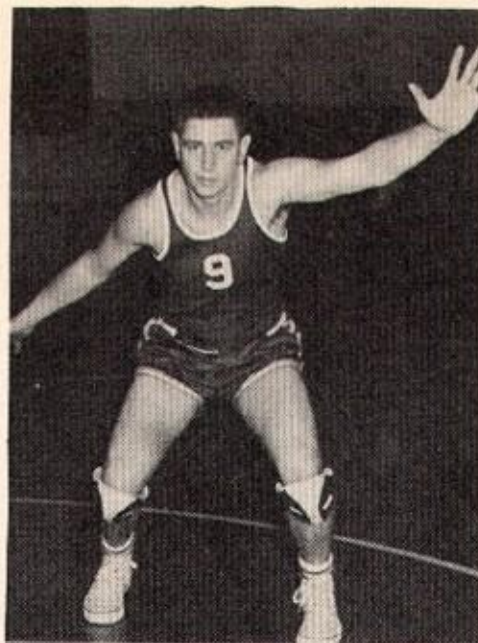

At the close of league play, the B-League tournament at McArthur Court was held with Lowell waxing Coburg for an easy B-League title, Lowell's fifth county crown.

Going into District play, Lowell lost to Harrisburg, State basketball champions, but went on to beat Siletz for consolation honors thus winding up a season of spectacular playing under the brilliant coaching of Lyle Carter, who has presented Lowell High with a team of the highest standing in the school history.

B-League tournament all-stars chosen from Lowell were Arlie Brown, center, and Richard Scheibner, forward. District All-Stars chosen from Lowell were Arlie Brown, Richard Scheibner and Ronald Matheny. Brown, a man of stature, found no equal in B-League competition, enabling him to score 297 points this year. Scheibner, a cool, fast-thinking player, helped his team immeasurably offensively and defensively in season and tournament play. Ronald Matheny, Lowell's second highest scorer, with 178 points, possessing unlimited ability, is a Junior, with one year of eligibility remaining.

TRACK

Lowell's track team won its second straight county title this year with little effort. The Red Devils also won their own invitational track meet consisting of all the other Lane County schools by an impressive score of 203 to Mapleton's second place with 115.

Four students, of whom three were Juniors, went to State last year. They were Bunny Rice, 100-yard dash; Ron Matheny, pole vault; and Neil Adkins, 440. Richard Scheibner was the Senior who went last year to run the mile and Arlie Brown attended State two years ago and ran the high hurdles.

Other well-proven track men are Dale Moon, Sophomore, who ran the mile, and Richard Erickson, Senior, in the shot put event.

Lowell's relay team has had no equal so far this year. It is consisted of Neil Adkins, Arlie Brown, Ralph Burton, and Bunny Rice.

This year's track team has shown some very good runners and field event men under the coaching of Mr. Jim Carmichael.

Scheibner waiting for pitch

Lowell's Red Devils who lost only two games last year and claimed an easy victory over the one-time great Pleasant Hill are back again this year to put another trophy in their trophy case.

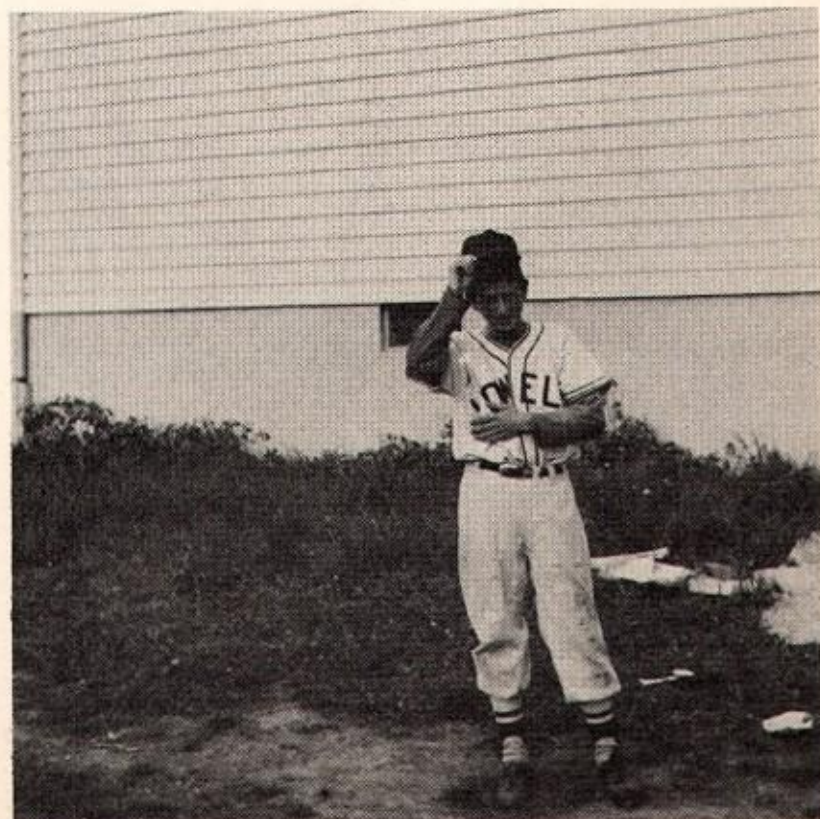

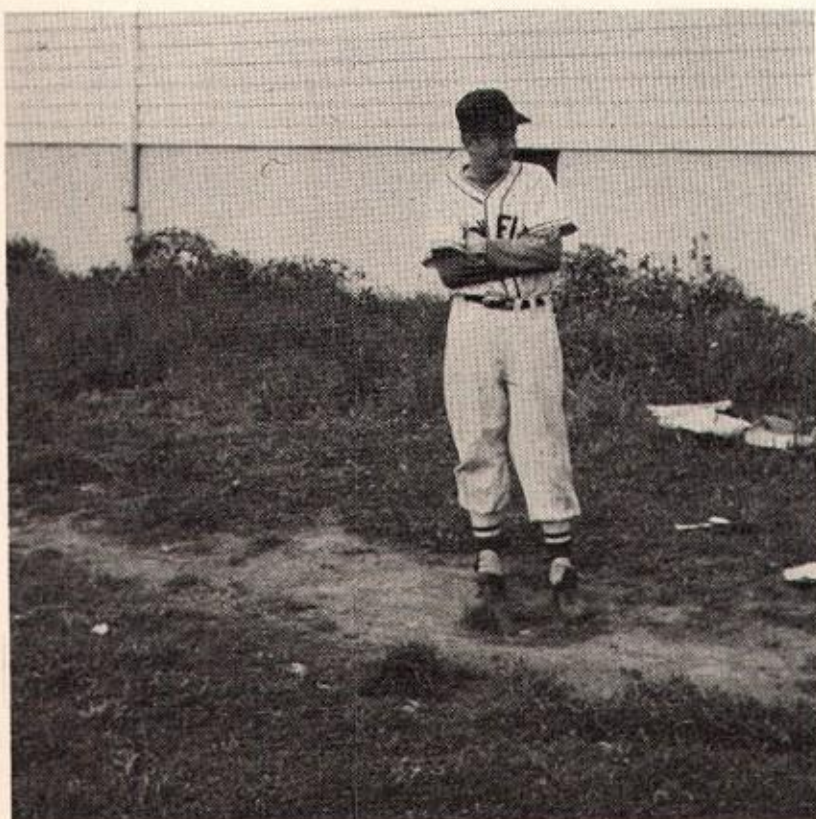

Among Lowell's baseball stars are veteran hurler, Arlie Brown; catcher, Dick Gilbert; second baseman, Ron Matheny; third baseman, Richard Scheibner; center fielder, Bunny Rice; right fielder, Ralph Burton.

The rebuilding of the Red Devils has come about mostly on the excellent coaching of Lyle Carter.

Richard Scheibner and Arlie Brown were co-captains of this year's team, which lost only two games. The Red Devils tied Coburg in the league standings but were beaten in the play-off by the Broncos. The scores for this season were:

McKenzie - 5.....	Lowell - 13	Mohawk - 1.....	Lowell - 2
Coburg - 1.....	Lowell - 0	Mohawk - 0.....	Lowell - 10
McKenzie - 6.....	Lowell - 11	Coburg - 8.....	Lowell - 3
Coburg - 4.....	Lowell - 5

VOLLEYBALL

Lowell's Red Devils started off with a bang this year and kept it up clear through the season. Winning their first eight games they were still undaunted after losing to Mohawk and came back to win two more, losing only once more to Coburg in their last game before the tournament with Mapleton. By losing only two games they were at the top of the league in Eastern Lane County, and they were to play Mapleton, champs in Western Lane County.

Their hearts were full of hope as they left school the evening of Feb. 24 for Willamette High School, the place of their championship game with Mapleton.

They returned defeated but undaunted and have great hopes of winning it next year.

Pat Young was elected by unanimous vote for honorary captain for the year and Marilyn Moore was co-captain.

Five of the girls were initiated into Lettergirls' Club for earning their letter this year. They were Della O'Conner, Gladys Vaughn, Jutta Pelzel, Virginia Cook, and Barbara Moore.
